L2L Offer:
30% OFF my children's book,
"Little Leaders: Big Hearts Leading the Way" ($23.00, regularly
$32.99 on Amazon)

With over twenty-five years of distinguished experience in business and a deep-seated passion for leadership and motivation, Colin Scott Bruce Jr. is a respected figure in leadership development. Throughout his career, he has excelled in various demanding roles where he has demonstrated an exceptional ability to nurture talent and foster transformative change.

Scott holds an impressive trio of graduate degrees—a Master's in Business Administration, a Master's in Industrial/Organizational Psychology, and a Master's in Public Administration and Leadership, each of which has equipped him with a deep understanding of the complex dynamics in organizational settings and the psychological aspects of leadership.

Little Leaders: Big Hearts Leading the Way marks Scott's debut in the literary world, encapsulating his lifelong commitment to cultivating leaders who are not only effective in their roles but also compassionate and visionary. This book reflects his philosophy that leadership stems from the heart and is a blend of empathy, strategic thinking, and unwavering determination.

The future depends on the leaders we cultivate now. I am dedicated to equipping youth with the skills, mindset, and vision to lead with purpose.

Connect with me to learn about our youth leadership initiatives and resources designed to empower the next generation. Together, let's shape the leaders of tomorrow.

Today, ask yourself this question....

“Do I find myself thriving or simply striving in my business??”

Either way, your business more than likely could be doing better than what it is. So how can you get your business to the level you are working so hard to achieve?

Duane Hammer, owner of Dogwood Business Development, Inc. is a catalyst for business growth and personal development. A graduate of Capital University and the Union County Leadership Institute with over forty years of sales, marketing, management, and coaching experience, Duane mentors those who are seeking help in taking their business or other entity from simply “striving” to “thriving”! His training, experience, and attentiveness give Duane the tools necessary for viable business solutions and his focus on the needs of the client make him an effective mentor. By fostering a faith-based proactive versus reactive approach to business fueled by a passion for education and helping others succeed, Duane is effective in helping his clients get results. Through education and planning, Duane works with his clients to develop the strategies necessary to achieve established goals – and he holds the client accountable for following through. As a result, Dogwood clients have achieved business and personal growth beyond what they thought was even possible!

Mitchell Multimedia

Mitchell Multimedia LLC was founded as a photography and video production company in September 2014 by Dan Mitchell located in Columbus, Ohio. From its inception the company has specialized in working with businesses of all sizes, local artists and musicians, non-profits covering event photography and videography, studio portrait photography, product and branding photography, and general content creation for ads and websites. Mitchell Multimedia also specializes in life events, i.e., weddings and graduations, family portraits, and high school senior portraits. Over the last 5 years Mitchell Multimedia has expanded its business and non-profit portfolio working with not just local businesses and organizations, but regionally and nationally recognized brands and companies.

I will be onsite capturing headshots for conference attendees. Headshots are just one small part of my overall business. I am here to also grow my contacts with a broader business community. I want to help businesses have a stronger online presence. Let Mitchell Multimedia help you convey your message, your brand, your product, your vision to your customers and clients through quality, powerful, meaningful imagery.
